Allow Rohima Akter Khushi to Complete her Studies

Honourable Chairman Shahidullah,

On behalf of the Thompson Rivers University Students' Union, we urge you to allow Rohingya student Rohima Akter Khushi to continue her studies at Cox's Bazar International University. As a Rohingya refugee, denying her education based solely on her identity is an affront to the human rights commitment that Bangladesh has made under the International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights.

We are deeply concerned about reports from Amnesty International that Rohima Akter Khushi has been suspended from the university due to her being Rohingya. Previously, university authorities have told Amnesty International that Khushi's suspension is due to the rule of Bangladesh government. As a refugee and a woman, Khushi has demonstrated a huge sense of tenacity in the face of adversity, and we hope that you can do your part to promote access to education for every person including the Rohingya.

For these reasons, we reiterate our request that you end the suspension and allow Rohima Akter Khushi to complete her higher education. Furthermore, we ask that you work with the international community to provide all children, including Rohingya refugees, access to accredited primary and secondary education in Cox's Bazar. Finally, we seek a commitment from you. We want you to commit to the promotion of academic freedom and the right to education for all as enshrined in the International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter.

Sincerely,
