BOARD OF DIRECTORS REQUIREMENTS

Board of Directors Orientation Attendance

Each year the TRUSU holds a mandatory orientation for board members. This orientation will provide each representative with an overview of the organization, an understanding of their legal responsibilities as a director, and an opportunity to begin the planning process for the upcoming year. The orientation for 2020/21 will take place on May 4 to May 6, 2020. Attendance at the board orientation is mandatory for all elected representatives. If you are unable to attend the Board Orientation you should not nominate yourself for consideration in the election.

Board of Directors Meeting Attendance

Board of Directors meetings take place once every two weeks. Quorum for Board of Directors meetings is 51% of the membership of the board excluding those on leave. Board members who miss three consecutive meetings are deemed to have resigned their position. Scheduled classes or work are not an excuse for missing a Board Meeting. Candidates should be prepared to attend meetings at the following times.

Committee Attendance

Each member of the Board of Directors is a member of at least one standing committee (see previous page) and the President and Vice Presidents are also members of the Executive Committee. Committee meetings are scheduled at times and dates set by a majority of the committee members. Candidates should be prepared to attend and participate in those committee meetings.

Leave of Absence Requirements

Board members and executive members may apply for a leave of absence for a maximum of one semester during their term on the Board of Directors. If any member of the board of directors is on a leave of absence they are not counted against quorum, do not attend meetings of the Union, and are ineligible for honoraria/benefits.

No more than one executive member, and two board members are eligible for a leave of absence during the same period and all leave of absence requests must be approved at a meeting of the board. If you are not approved for a leave of absence and miss more than three consecutive meetings you are deemed to have resigned your position.

Honoraria

Members of the Board of Directors, not on leave, are eligible to receive a bi-weekly honoraria with the submission of a report outlining their activities. This honoraria is paid at minimum wage to a maximum of 20 hours per week for members of the executive and 10 hours per week for all other members of the board.

Activities which are eligible for honoraria include:

- a) Attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors that take place during the biweekly period
- b) Attendance at meetings of the standing committee(s) to which they are elected that take place during the biweekly period.
- c) Activities of the standing committee(s) to which they are elected approved in the committee(s) annual plan that take place during the biweekly period.
